

Hello. This is Amy Davis, Assistant Principal at Wakefield North, with your weekly message.

It has been a few weeks since my last message. There have not been any specific Wakefield North updates recently. All important announcements were covered in Mr. Savage's previous weekly messages.

Next week is a critical week for our students. It is midterm exam week. For many freshmen, this will be their first experience with taking midterms. These exams do count for 10% of the quarter grade. First and third period midterms will be given on Wednesday, October 29. Second and fourth period midterms will be given on Thursday, October 30. Midterm exams are given during class time. Students will be on a regular, full-day schedule next week. Any student who misses his/her midterm can make it up on Friday, October 31.

In addition, yearbooks will be on sale at Wakefield North on Thursday, October 30. The base price is $70, personalization is an additional $6 and icons are $3 each. Cash and checks will be accepted.

Also, keep in mind that November 3 and 4 are teacher workdays.

This concludes your weekly message. Thank you. Goodbye.
